

A Day in the Life of Your United Way Investment

6 am Burlington Safety Patrol helps keep children safe as they are off to school.

2 pm A new Hispanic family in the community meets with Racine Family Literacy for help English instruction.

3 pm Children arrive at an afternoon school center rather than an empty house thanks to the Racine Afterschool website.

4 pm A mentor from Big Brothers/Big Sisters meets with her assigned child to work on homework together.

10 pm Individuals without homes are checking into HALO for an overnight stay.

11 pm A person with developmental disabilities receives education, advocacy and support at The ARC of Racine County.

12 am A runaway youth is brought to Safe Haven for food, clothing, shelter and support.

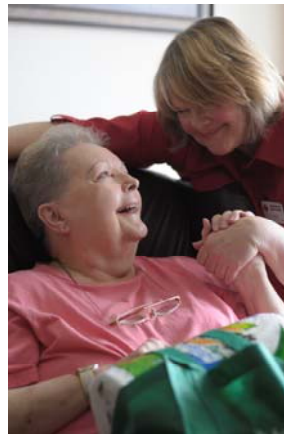

1 am A young wife is checking into Women's Resource Center to escape abuse.

7 am Racine Family YMCA summer day camp counselors are preparing activities for area children.

5 pm A family enjoys a meal and a fun and educational program together provided by Focus on Community.

2 am American Red Cross provides emergency assistance and temporary housing for a family who has lost their home to a fire.

8 am Children at Next Generation Now are experiencing early language and literature education.

3 am A Sexual Assault Services advocate provides support for a victim of sexual assault at a local hospital.

9 am Health Care Network begins treating low-income patients, allowing emergency rooms to focus on critical patients.

10 am A volunteer from Lincoln Lutheran plays cards with an elderly woman to give her family care giver a break.

4 am United Way 2-1-1 is taking calls from individuals needing information and referral to agencies.

11 am Youth for Christ provides a group session about positive choices for teens involved in the juvenile justice system.

6 pm A woman meets with a counselor at Bethany Apts. to create goals for her family to remain safe and free from abuse.

Noon A child in Western Racine County receives a new book in the mail from Imagination Library.

7 pm A group of girls are excited to tell their parents about the craft they made at Girl Scouts.

1 pm A single mother with a new infant receives in-home instruction from a trained parent educator on health issues, child development and appropriate parenting techniques through Family Smart/Kid Friendly.

8 pm A young man finishes his counseling session at Family Service of Racine.

5 am An apprentice gets up for work after completing the program at First Choice Pre-Apprenticeship.

9 pm The Racine County Food Bank finishes deliveries to neighborhood food pantries.