

BE PART OF THE SOLUTION

One in three of our local third graders struggles with reading.

When kids can't read, they can't succeed.

Join United Way and other community partners in planning to address this issue.

United Way
of Racine County

Schools of Hope is a proven model for improving reading through partnerships and community volunteerism that has been adopted by United Ways across the country. United Way of Racine County is taking the next step in launching a Schools of Hope initiative locally.
