

Schools of Hope

3,600+

Total number of hours provided by 161 volunteer tutors during the 2016-17 school year.

Students in Racine Unified and Burlington Area schools who participated in Schools of Hope during the 2016-17 school year.

105

Schools of Hope, a United Way-led initiative in partnership with the Racine Unified School District, the Burlington Area School District, local businesses, and community members, provides young children in 1st-3rd grade with tutors on a regular basis to increase reading achievement in the early grades.