

Veterans Initiative

New in 2017

United Way of Racine County, in collaboration with Veterans Outreach of Wisconsin and the Wisconsin Women's Business Initiative Corporation, offer volunteer success coaching for veterans that focuses on financial stability while using tools and resources provided by the Consumer Financial Protection Bureau. In-person, individualized, and trustworthy guidance can help local veterans make good financial decisions and reach their financial goals to maintain independence.