"Hi, We are 6 sixth grade girls from San Juan Diego Middle School's dance troop and we really wanted to do something for our community but did not know how to get it done. We found Y.A.R. (Youth As Resources) and they helped us, we applied for a grant and presented our idea to them. With out them we would not be able to do it. We will be hosting a pajama party for girls and their moms at the local shelter."

Our Presentation

- We want them to have a great time, so they can feel like a normal child.

- We are going to build different stations where they can work at.

Most Important...

Excellent...

Why & What??

- Why a pajama party?
  - When talking with HALO. We wanted to give children who are homeless a chance to break out of their shell and have fun, like a normal girl. We all like to listen to music, have fun, and have sleepovers, so we wanted to do one for HALO.
  - The children come into the shelter and have very little amounts of clothes. They really don't have pajama's and HALO does not get pajamas in either.
- What will each girl get out of our party?
  - Fun, adventure, friendships. Also they will get new pajama's, new slippers, a book, a canvas treat bag that has girlie goodies in it.

Fun...

Priceless...

Deejae + Minerva

Girls just wanna have fun: PJ party at HALO

Six "Glamorous Girlz" from San Juan Diego Middle School presented a "Girls Just Wanna Have Fun" pajama party to the mothers and daughters at HALO last week.

The girls were able to host the party after writing and receiving a grant from Youth As Resources through the Racine County United Way. The girls planned six different activities, including a beauty station, cookie decorating, karaoke, quilt making, a night time mask station, and pictures.

Mothers and daughters from the shelter, the transitional housing program and the outreach program attended. The girls purchased new pajamas and a goodie bag with girly treasures for each of the attendees. "Everyone got new pj's and changed into them right away," said Deejae Kober, 12, who was one of the grant writers. "We wanted everyone to feel comfortable and just have fun."

Besides the pictures, the karaoke was the hit of the night as everyone took turns singing. Stephanie Kober, family program manager at HALO said, "It was a great idea to do this with the participants, it gave everyone a chance to relax, and kick back and remember (at least for the moms) what it was like to be a kid."

The party lasted three hours and included a movie and popcorn. The Glamorous Girlz are Deejae Kober, Luna Font, Minerva Galvan, Elissa Ramos, Jessica O'Connor and Jocelyne Mendoza.
