YEAH

Jessica,

The Merry Christmas Event we had went well. This event was planned out by the (Project Charm girls) and the supervisors that we had there. Our Event had taken place at X-cite. The Events that was taken place at the Merry Christmas event was the: activities, story telling, dinner, and opening the gifts. This Christmas party was planned for the people that don't have a Christmas like we do.

I think the party went well. We had a wonderful time. We helped out all the people and their kids have a nice Christmas.

+ Relax

T Overall this event was nice
We had most our guest show Up and many many expected as well as unexpected helpers The only thing that really went wrong was we had no Santa But everyone left w/ smiling faces including us!

Sincerely
Juliana

● organized!

● No one knew we were first-timers!

● No one knew we were nervous!

● Received all good reviews!

● Parents and children really kept busy and enjoyed everything.

Cons = Constructive

● too many volunteers.
We should have worn name tags.

● we should do set up differently. Activities first for late arrivals!

● Put the grant in earlier to have more room for spending.

● Own Up to the group.
* Be at all meetings (for Project Charm Girls)

What's Up?

Our Agenda

1. Finalized the event
2. Cookie baking and invitation sending @ Lee's House.
3. Shopping
4. Decorating
Set
Cooking
5. The Event
6. Rest

When we started we we thought this was going to be easy. We learned that it was not.
We have a team around this has really made our team stronger....

We been planning this event since October 2009 and boy were we tired. See our group is voluntary and we have people coming and going all the time. So the six that stay on strong were the ones who made our event successful...

As mentioned earlier we have been working on the prep of the grant since 10/2009. When we started our minds were really dreamy. We had so many thoughts and wanted to implement them all. But then to our adult leaders they redirected us. A lot that is.
So 10/2009 to 11/2009. We planned survey, talked and collaborated with all kinds of people. We wanted a success. Toward the end all that work paid off.

So my most funnest part of the event was the hands on. Paper work is not my thing. Anyway.
I enjoyed shopping for the needed items food, supplies, decorations, crafts. Then we had to put everything together in the right place we were so so tired. on 12/18 we started decorating at 5:30pm, we did not get done until 10pm. Then the next day we all gathered at xcite and put together more stuff But By the end, before the guest came that is, everything looked great. we put together this beautiful event. Then when the kids came. Everything flowed nicely. like clock work. It was lovely necklace making, and makes. In "Toy land" we have magnets, door hangers, X-mas cards, book marks and cookie decor. The food was served the the hallway. Upon arrival all children were given a bag w/ a color page and tickets for the booths. Parent was given a bag w/ a raffle ticket, charm info and survey

Since our food drive did not go as planned not all families got to go home w/ a basket. But we were about to give two families 2 nice size food baskets though. OVERALL, we had fun.
